

City of San Bernardino - Quality of Life

Gold! - gold is still found by "weekend miners" who make the trek with their pans and equipment.

Rt. 66 - Don't miss the curious Wigwam Motel on the north side of Foothill Boulevard, one of the remaining relics of the 66 era. San Bernardino was made quite famous by all of the excitement of the "Mother Road." The Route still exists and passes through the city on its way to Santa Monica where it ends.

First McDonald's Restaurant Site

Route 66 Night Cruise

Court Street Square

The quality of life in San Bernardino blends old traditions with new concepts and community involvement. San Bernardino is the location of the nation's original McDonald's Restaurant site, the cars and stars of the award winning annual Route 66 Rendezvous® classic car event, the Area Youth Sports Alliance for regional, national and international tournament sports, Sturges Center Theater and Junior University for youth performing arts and the International Children's Choir.

Home of the Inland Empire 66ers Professional Baseball Club, an affiliate of the Seattle Mariners

The California Theater of the Performing Arts is home to the San Bernardino Symphony, Theatrical Arts International, Sinfonia Mexicana, San Bernardino Valley Concert Association and the Inland Dance Theater.

With more than 14,000 students, Cal State, San Bernardino is the largest university in the Inland Empire. Important university components include a highly respected M.B.A. as well as recognized programs in accounting, finance and other business fields; computer science; geographic information and decision sciences; industrial/organizational psychology; health and public administration. In addition to excellent programs in the arts and sciences, including a nationally acclaimed writing program, CSUSB has a leading teacher-preparation program that is one of the nation's 10 largest.

Welcome to Pasadena

Located at the base of the San Gabriel Mountains, Pasadena is just 15 minutes north of downtown Los Angeles in sunny Southern California. Pasadena offers the business and recreational traveler a surprising combination of sophisticated charm, culture, history, and fun.

On Thursday, January 1, 2009 at 8 a.m. (PST), millions of spectators from around the world will celebrate the New Year with the 120th Rose Parade themed Hats Off To Entertainment. The Rose Parade will once again feature the beautiful pageantry and tradition of magnificent floral floats, high-stepping equestrians and spirited marching bands.

Beyond the excitement of the Annual Rose Bowl Parade and football game, Pasadena, California is also a Route 66 adventure.

Car 231 Del Mar Station Pasadena Ca

The Pasadena Playhouse

College of Theater Arts

The Pasadena Playhouse was a renowned school of acting as well as a legitimate theatre, giving students at its College of Theatre Arts first-hand experience on the stage. Founded in 1917, the school closed in 1969 - although it remains open as a theatre. In between, it was declared the "State Theatre of California" by unanimous vote of the state legislature. In the 1930s, 40s, and 50s it was known as "Hollywood's talent factory."

Jazz at the House

This popular jazz concert series, now in its 3rd year, continues at Historic Greystone Mansion.

The Manor Murder and Mystery in the Mansion

2008 is the 6th season of this theatrical experience, created and presented especially for Greystone Mansion by Theatre 40. Audience members follow the actors through the Mansion's first floor during this tragic family saga.

Beverly Hills and the neighboring city of West Hollywood are together entirely surrounded by the city of Los Angeles. The city's image has been enhanced by being featured in television shows and movies set in Beverly Hills, including the The Jack Benny Program (1950 to 1954), The Beverly Hillbillies (1962 to 1971), the Beverly Hills Cop movies, and Beverly Hills 90210 (1990 to 2000). There's a worldwide hit animation series Totally Spies based in Beverly Hills, as three teen girls attend fictional Beverly High School are part-time undercover spies.

Beverly Hills marketed itself as one of the most glamorous places in the world to shop. The Golden Triangle, with Rodeo Drive at its center, was marketed as the apex of chic shopping and fashion.

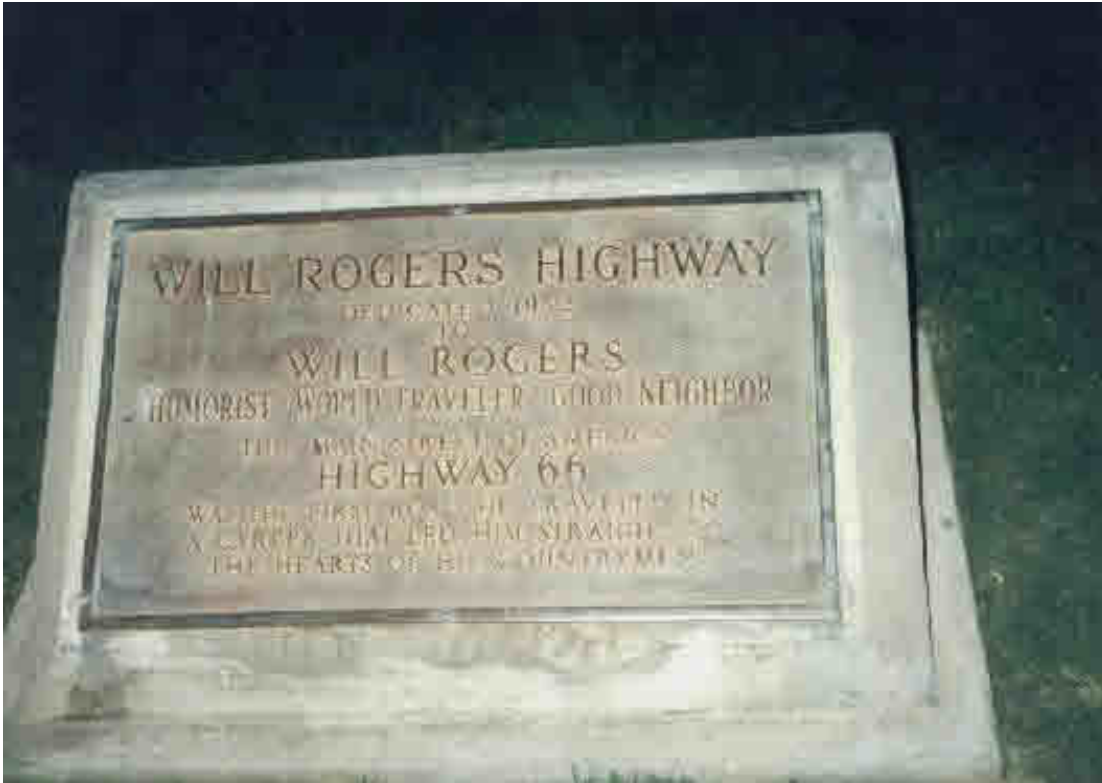

New Ferris wheel on the Santa Monica Pier

Golden beaches and a sultry Pacific Ocean coastline, urban walkways and sandy terrain, gourmet cuisine and world-class dining, and first-rate couture and upscale boutiques.

Known for its healthy lifestyle, Santa Monica is situated in a compact, walkable 8.3 square miles. This environment- and pedestrian-friendly city also boasts one of the most respected public transportation systems in the nation, making the entire city easily accessible and convenient, even without a vehicle. Additionally, the city's world-famous beach and bike trail offer a vast assortment of outdoor recreation and activities.

Will Rogers Highway

This Main Street of America, Highway 66

Was the first road he traveled in a career that led his straight to the hearts of his countrymen.

Santa Monica is the Western Terminus of Rt. 66